Last Friday, our school had a talent show. Many students came to the hall with their families. First, Salim juggled four balls. Everyone clapped because he was very good. Then Maryam played the piano. She is shy in class, but she was very confident on the stage. After that, Hamed wanted to count from one to a hundred in one minute, but he forgot the numbers! Everyone laughed, and Hamed laughed, too. At the end, the head teacher gave a prize to the best student. Maryam won it because she was the most confident student in the show. It was a great day.
