LISTENING 1

(You will hear five short conversations about technology.)

One:

M: What are you doing, Laila?

F: I am listening to music, but I do not want to wake the baby.

M: Good idea to be careful. Put those on your ears and nobody can hear it.

F: Thanks, Dad. Now I can enjoy my songs and the baby can sleep.

Two:

M: I have to print my English homework. Can you show me how, Mum?

F: Of course. Put the paper in, then press that button there. The machine prints it for you.

M: It is easy! Thanks for your help.

Three:

F: We are going on holiday next week, Ahmed. Do you want to take photos of the beach?

M: Yes. I will take this small one. It has a big lens and it is very easy to use.

F: Great, you can print the pictures at home and show them to your friends.

Four:

F: Where do you do your school work, Hamad?

M: On my computer, which is small and I carry it in my bag. I type my homework and send it to the teacher.

F: That is very useful. You can work anywhere!

Five:

F: Oh no, it is late! Can you call Mum and tell her we are here, Salim?

M: I cannot call. I have to charge my phone, but I can send her a message.

F: Good idea. She will see it on her phone.
