M: Where were you yesterday evening, Amani? I called you many times.

M: Did your team win?

F: Yes, two to one! The fans were very happy.

Three:

F: What does your uncle do, Khamis?

M: He works in a big building where they make cars. There are many machines inside.

Four:

M: Why were you late for school this morning, Maryam?

F: My little brother was sick, so my mother took him to see the doctor.

M: Is he better now?

LISTENING 2

(An interview between a teacher and Salim.)

Woman: Hello Salim. Tell us about your class trip last week.

Man: It was great! Our class visited an ancient palace in the old town.

Woman: What time did you arrive there?

Man: We arrived at nine o'clock. Our guide was waiting for us at the entrance.

Woman: What did you see first?

Man: First, she took us upstairs and we saw old paintings. They were beautiful.

Woman: Did you find anything interesting after that?

Man: Yes! I was looking at a bookcase when I noticed a small door behind it. We thought it was a secret room, but it was only a cupboard for old books!

Woman: That is funny. Were you hungry after all that walking?

Man: Yes, we went to the café on the ground floor and had juice and sandwiches.

Woman: What a lovely trip. Thank you, Salim.
